Terence Moore : The New Captured Harvest: Creative Crafts from Nature before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The New Captured Harvest: Creative Crafts from Nature:

Following THE CAPTURED HARVEST (1994), a collection of 50 new creations from this designer, inspired by the four seasons and using mosses, pine cones, dried leaves, grasses and fruits, chillies, shells, rope fungi and other materials.

From BooklistMoore operates a company known for its decorative, country-style dried arrangements, and his expertise is evident in this handsome guide. Step-by-step photographs show techniques for creating floral baskets, topiaries, centerpieces, lush swags, and candleholders for seasonal gatherings. The level of difficulty varies, with many designs that are quite easy to assemble. Gift ideas are featured, along with decorations for special occasions, such as wedding parties. Gardeners will find a good number of appealing projects using materials they can grow, but a list of suppliers is also provided for those who choose to purchase dried herbs and flowers, seed pods, fabrics, moss, and the florist's supplies necessary to fabricate most of Moore's designs.
