Book III of the Tiffin Glassmasters series has been expanded to the years 1915-1980. It includes the following: in the late 1900's the Tiffin Glass Co. was running 64 cutting frames, with master cutters; just to keep up with the demand for the cut glass. In 1938 the Tiffin "Art Glass Era" began with the introduction of Guild Gossamer", by the glassmaster Victor Hendrix. This "Era" continued into the later 1940's. In 1964 the T. G. Hawkes Cut Glass Co., Corning, New York, was purchased by the Tiffin Art Glass Co. The "Hawkes" items produced at the Tiffin Ohio Plant are included in this book. In 1955 the Duncan Miller Glass Co., Washington, PA, became the Duncan Miller Div. of the U. S. Glass

Co., Tiffin, Ohio. The "Duncan" items that the Tiffin Glass Co. produced are covered in a special chapter of this book. There are thousands of items and many colors that were not known to the author at the time Book I and II were sent to the printers. These also are included in this publication.
