I like how on each page it has a place to write the date you completed the date and any notes. Such a fun idea! It would be a really fun thing to do with a group of girls or guys every time you get together!

With 100 fun and creative ways to shake things up, this book will challenge you to get outside of your usual activities. It also includes a place to record your completion dates and questions to help you remember the highlights of each activity!
