By C. Scott This is a beautiful book with really neat crafts and projects. It is perfect for making handmade gifts for friends or for yourself. My daughter loves this book and the projects are well laid out like the previous books. This book is perfect for those that want to learn to make neat gifts that are not store bought but are high quality and from the heart. I recommend the entire series of books.

By Helen Ann Wood Love it! My daughter and I have looked through this together and made several things. Very cute with good instructions!

Let's get started and make gifts for every special person in your life don't worry, we won't forget your four-legged friends! Wouldn't it be cool to make birthday presents or anytime presents for your family and friends? This book will teach you how! Make a tie for your dad, a scarf for your mom, and a pet bed for your pup! You've never used a sewing machine? Don't worry! You can make a ton of these projects with just a needle and thread; make and gift cute bags, ribbons, and even garlands. You'll be a pro handmade gifter in no time!

The projects are graded from 'easy peasy' to 'take time and ask for help' so they will suit a range of confidence and experience levels. Each page is illustrated with clear and colorful photos, and the techniques can be made sense of at a glance. There is enough information without being overwhelming, which encourages the reader to get on and make. The gifts are perfect for the important people in a child's life such as friends, pets, mum and dad. A handy source of fun and useful gift ideas. (Love Sewing Australia, Issue 9) "We Love to Sew Gifts" (CT Publishing), by children's sewing teacher Annabel Wrigley, shares 23 projects, including a scarf, pillow, wall hanging, tote and dog collar.
