Dapper dogs, dancing cats, elegant frogs, birds in fine feather -- even a suave pig and a dandy pelican fisherman -- these Victorian critters are definitely headed for the best-dressed list! Robin Anderson has done it again, with a unique collection of stained glass patterns based on whimsical Victorian animal images of the 1870's, 80's and 90's. Drawing from advertising trade cards, greeting cards, and children's illustrations, Anderson has created a one-of-a-kind collection of delightful, fanciful "critters" that are sure to capture your imagination. This book is packed with sure-fire gift ideas and panels you won't be able to resist crafting for your own windows -- plus a host of helpful tips that will enable you to bring these enchanting "personalities" to life!

About the Author Robin Anderson has been crafting stained glass and designing original panels for nearly 15 years. She specializes in realistic animal and pet designs, and her studio is known for its pet loss memorial panels. Anderson was a guest lecturer on the 2015 KBW Stained Glass Cruise, and her work has been featured in Glasscrafter's Quarterly.
