Awesome concept- what a great product to promote creativity and self-expression By Bekah A. This journal boxed set is the coolest thing since sliced bread. I got this for my daughter for Christmas b/c it was all the rage. The ideas inside were fun to read, some were easy and some were cheesy. She didn't really follow through on completing the journals but it really is a neat concept. This would be a great gift idea for any youngster who needs something to occupy her time and give her some ideas on how to express her creativity. This really was the neatest idea, I wish something like this had been around when I was younger. 11 of 11 people found the following review helpful. Perfect By Tiffanie Just received this box set in the mail today. If you like to write and doodle, this is the book for you. All of three of the books included in this set are super cute and creative. I can't wait to start filling them out.

Keri Smith's wildly popular interactive journals Wreck This Journal (the expanded edition), This Is Not a Book, and Mess are now available in one boxed set. Smith invites you to reimagine what a book can be (a secret message, a recording device, an instrument). Poke holes in the pages. Paint them with coffee. Bring the book in the shower. Let loose and make a mess. And now you can even wreck the box.

About the Author Keri Smith is a bestselling author, illustrator, and thinker. Her books demonstrate a 'learn by doing approach', and are being used in school curriculums all over the world as a way of fostering non-traditional methods of exploration. She also teaches and conducts workshops based on her non-traditional techniques across North America. Her books include: Wreck this Journal, How to Be an Explorer of the World, Mess - A Manual of Accidents and Mistakes, and Finish This Book. She enjoys spending time with her husband, experimental musician Jefferson Pitcher, and two children Tilden and Ida.
